

Adults and Communities

Market Position Statement for Adult Social Care

Leicestershire County Council's adult social care Market Position Statement is now available as web pages

The statement summarises supply and demand in the county, highlighting opportunities within the care market county wide. It is intended to be used by providers to plan for the future, informing business choices such as investment in capital or workforce.

